New to the Cyclades this stunning collection of agricultural stone houses was built in the late 19th-century and has been sympathetically renovated & extended using traditional & local materials focusing on natural stones and soft woods, resulting in a Zen-like atmosphere. Within walking distance from the main square of Hora, Themonies has captivating views across the city, the Monastery and the neighbouring Cyclades islands. These 5 independent, fully-equipped mini villas provide an atmospheric setting of sophisticated elegance and modern comfort. Earthy colours and shades of white, make the perfect backdrop to the linen & cotton fabrics, rare antiques and objects d'art. Each residence features a private veranda or courtyard with comfortable teak furniture and far reaching views. Environmentally friendly policies are in place including bio-climatic architecture, recycling, water filtering and energy efficient lighting. Guests will be charmed by the warm hospitality and the simple elegance of this homely retreat on this unspoilt island.
